

Summer Book Share ~ 4 Weeks ~

Join us beginning : June 20, 2019- July 18 (no session on July 4) 7:15 PM – 8:30 PM

Where: Media Room

Book: “Orthodoxy” by CK Chesterton- book available on : www.amazon.com $4.99

General Information: St. Gabriel’s will be hosting a Catholic philosophy/apologetics reading group – Apologetics is reasoned arguments or writings in justification of something, typically a theory or religious doctrine. Participants will be reading G.K. Chesterton’s, “Orthodoxy”, one of the most important pieces of Catholic apologetics written in the 20th Century. The novella presents a completely original view of Christianity as the natural answer to human needs or the “answer to a riddle” as Chesterton presents it. The book’s 8 chapters will be split up such that 2 chapters are discussed each week. We are excited to host what is sure to be an engaging series of discussions. PLEASE READ CHAPTERS 1 &2 FOR OUR FIRST SESSION.

The Book Share will be led by Dom Conoshenti , a recent graduate of George Washington University. Dom would like to invite young adults and people of all ages to read and dialogue teachings of our Catholic Faith.
