

It is with great joy that I announce that the long awaited, New Jersey Catholic Charismatic Conference - Encounter School of Healing, that will be held on Pentecost Weekend, May 21-22, 2021.

The Encounter School of Healing is a two-day conference to teach, impart and activate Catholics to be a more effective minister of Jesus' healing in the world! Conference participants can expect an atmosphere of Spirit-filled worship in the Presence of God, Holy Mass, inspiring and transforming keynote speakers, Eucharistic Adoration, a Healing Service, Fellowship and many opportunities for prayer ministry and growth in the Gifts of the Holy Spirit.

The conference is blessed to have two of the most sought-after dynamic keynote speakers, Patrick Reis, Executive Director of Encounter Ministries and Ryan Mahle, Encounter Ministries' Director of Satellite Campuses and the President of Encounter Ministries of Southwest Ohio. Patrick and Ryan represent the new generation of leadership in Catholic Charismatic Renewal in the United States.

The Conference will be in-person at Saint Mary, Mother of God Church in Middletown, New Jersey. This large church seats 1200 people. The Conference will follow covid restrictions for capacity. Early registration is encouraged. The Conference will also be livestream on the DOTCCR YouTube channel.

The suggested donation for the Conference is $50.00 a person. To register visit www.DOTCCR.org call the Conference office at 732-671-0071, ext.221.

It is going to be an amazing Pentecost weekend. Please share the news with your friends and family. Come, Holy Spirit!

In Jesus and Mary,
Father Jeff Kegley
